Pastoral Thoughts

Let us begin to Heal

I am writing this on Wednesday afternoon to meet our deadline for printing the bulletin.

This week we have experienced a monumental event in our nation's history, a presidential election with a record setting turnout and as of now we still do not have a result. With two parties so divided like never before we can only hope and pray that now that calmer heads will prevail once the results are announced.

Our nation has a long history of over-coming troubling times and healing wounds, so, let us now pray that we find a way to come together for the betterment of the country. Our nation has been wounded severely, but I am confident we can heal. The process will be slow, and we should not get discouraged if it does not over-night.

For we are a country that the world looks to for guidance and stability, and that is where we need return to. The results of the pandemic and isolation have brought out a lot of emotion in many people, but we need to turn to our faith and be patient and be understanding of those we disagree with, and not let ourselves be brought down to a level we are embarrassed of.

Here at the parish we have been blessed on how we all come together during this time of uncertainty. Parishioners have been more concerned with the health of their brothers and sisters and checking on them, rather than with what party they vote with.

So many of you have answered the 2nd greatest law our Lord gave us, "to Love your neighbor as much as you love yourself".

So, let us move ahead together united for the common good.

Many Blessings,

Dcn Tyrone

Mass Time Changes Coming

With the beginning of Advent, Our Lady of Sorrows will embark with New Mass times on Sundays. Our Sunday Mass times beginning Sunday, November 29, 2020 will be 8:30am and 10:30am. Please make sure you note this weekend as the start of the new times.

By bringing our Sunday Mass times closer together we ensure that we are able to get a priest to have Mass for both Mass times on Sunday.

Join us on Thanksgiving

Please plan to join your church family here for our Thanksgiving service at 10:00am. We invite you to bring something that you will be placing on your dinner table, to have it blessed.

It could be a bottle of wine, a bag of rolls, soda, pie or even a plate. A special blessing will be said on behalf of all present; asking our Lord and asking Him to Grace everyone's table, and know of our gratitude for how fortunate we are, to be able to enjoy a special meal with family and friends, and enjoy a warm and safe place to gather.

Our Reflection this year will be given by Jim Hardy.

I look forward to celebrating with you on Thanksgiving Day as we give thanks for all we have.

In Memory of . . .

Please remember Loretta Riss, parishioner of Our Lady of Sorrows, who passed away last week. Please remember the Riss and Dumovich families who mourn her passing.

Eternal rest grant unto her oh Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon her.

We hope that many of you will take a momentary break in your day to come and help as we celebrate together this Christmas season.

Volunteers Wanted

We are still looking for volunteers, willing to participate at our weekend Mass times as a Reader, Eucharistic Minister, Server or Usher/Greeter. Please email Dcn. Tyrone, dcnt@oloskc.org if you are interested in helping out. Training will be provided.

Church Cleaning in December Update

Due to a funeral on the first weekend of December, we will be moving our monthly church cleaning to Saturday, December 12, at 9:00am. This will be our cleaning day for Christmas. We need about 10 people to make everything go quickly and get everything cleaned.

We hope to see you there.
