Pastoral Thoughts

Greetings Fellow Christians

Today we celebrate the Feast of Pentecost – a wonderful Feast where we recall the day the Advocate (Holy Spirit) Christ promised ascends upon His apostles and disciples.

Now, their baptisms were complete. Not only were they baptized with water, but now with the Holy Spirit. It is a gift that all baptized Christians share and it unites us with those first believers of Christ.

We were told we would never be left alone or orphaned, and the Holy Spirit is the fulfillment of that promise. For Christ, ministry ended with the Ascension, but ours is now just beginning. For with the Spirit, all things are possible, and we can achieve our true potential as children of God, and each of us will achieve greatness in our own way. It may not be recognized by those around us, but Christ will know what we have achieved in His name and will be well pleased.

We are now able to understand a little better what Love, compassion, forgiveness, and Joy truly mean. We realize that it's not all about us, but rather those with whom we encounter. We acknowledge our fragile and sinful nature and understand that true happiness lies with Christ and living His message of Peace.

It is a new beginning that we are all called to embrace no matter our stage of life – it is never too late. For Christ opened the Heavens for us and given us an example to follow. Even though none of us is perfect – God's loving grace and mercy is so great that He never stops loving us.

So today, open your heart to the Spirit, allowing the Spirit to move in you, and guide you through all aspects of your life, and it will bring you great Joy, especially during this time of trial.

Many Blessings,

Dcn Tyrone

Feast of St. Anthony—June 13

Pease plan on joining us on Saturday June 13th at 10 AM as we celebrate the Feast of St. Anthony of Padua.

Our Lady of Sorrows was staffed for nearly 100 years by the good Franciscans and they held St. Anthony in high esteem.

St. Anthony is beloved worldwide, and patron of lost items. Many of us have heard the short prayer:

“Tony, Tony,
look around,
Help me find,
What can't be found”.

This simple prayer has helped many people in distress find help.

During my trip to Rome last year, this prayer was invoked for one of the pilgrims on the trip. We had just left a ruins area and one of the ladies went into the restroom to wash her hands and went outside to shake them off because the towel dispenser had run out. While she shook her hands in the air her wedding ring slid off her finger into a bushy area bordering the sidewalk. She had no ideal where it went and called out for help. Once 4-5 of us gathered we said the prayer to St. Anthony because we knew without his help, we would never find her ring in the brush since we had less than 10 minutes before our bus had to leave.

Oh, what a blessing it was when one of our group found the ring. We took a moment to thank St. Anthony and continued on our way, and the lady was so relieved she would not have to tell her husband that she lost her wedding ring.

The power of prayer never ceases to amaze me, and St. Anthony is known to have helped so many believers around the world. So please plan to join us on June 13th for a wonderful liturgy and connecting us to our past here at Our Lady of Sorrows.

Blessings, Dcn Tyrone

Call or email the office if you have a Mass intention you would like to have said. We have openings. 816.421.2112

Our YouTube Channel & Facebook

With the return of public masses we will be suspending our online live streaming and posting of pre-recorded Masses.

We will be adding content in the future for further prayer and reflection.

We wish each of you great week. We look forward to see each of you when we are able to come together to celebrate again, here at Our Lady of Sorrows. In the meantime, please visit us on the web at oloskc.org and participate in Mass online through YouTube and Facebook.
