Pastoral Thoughts

Happy 4th of July

This weekend we celebrate our independence as a nation, an event that would change how the world would view and judge freedom and equality worldwide. It's ironic that since those first days in 1776 when we proudly acclaimed to the world that we would be different, that our own country has struggled with the very ideals of justice for all that we introduced to the world.

For in the wake of the George Floyd tragedy, our nation has had renewed awaking to the inequality that has infested our society. For far too long has the cries for the underprivileged been ignored, and it should give us great peace that the young people, the ones we usually complain about not having any motivations are leading this charge. It appears they were not as out of touch as many of us would have thought.

This Independence Day finds us with conflicting views and various levels of trust among our population, but thank goodness the founding Fathers gave us the freedom and protection to voice those concerns publicly without the fear of penalty.

This Independence Day, let us all take a moment to reflect on how we can again make this nation the shining City on the Hill that the rest of the world strives to imitate.

Note:

As you know we introduced a pilgrimage opportunity to the parish last weekend, and it was also done at our partner parish (Redemptorist) for this pilgrimage to Rome, Assisi and the Holy Land. I hope you will consider making this pilgrimage with us next year, July 2021.

There has already been great interest in this trip, but unfortunately between the two parishes we will only be able to accommodate the first 40 reservations. I would encourage you to contact me at the office with any questions if you are considering going on this life changing trip.

Have a Blessed and Safe Holiday,
Blessings, Dcn Tyrone

LightHOUSE Catholic Media

Excerpt from 7 Secrets of Confession by Vinny Flynn
Jesus knew and loved us each and all during his life, his agony and his Passion, and gave himself up for each one of us.

Catechism of the Catholic Church #478

Read that again and think about it. All during Christ's life, all during His agony, all during His Passion, Christ knew and loved you! He gave Himself up and died for you. If you had been the only human being who needed to be saved, Christ would have died just for you. That's how precious each individual person is to God.

You weren't even born yet. Your parents and grandparents weren't even born yet. But Christ isn't subject to time. He saw you, knew you, loved you, and died for you on the cross.

When we enter the confessional, we shouldn't go with the idea that we need to beg Christ to forgive us. Yes, we ask for forgiveness, but we do so with expectant and grateful faith, knowing that Christ already won it for us on the cross, even though we didn't deserve it, and that He is simply waiting for us to ask for it, so that we can receive it into our lives now.

Call the Office to arrange an order and curbside pick up. 816.421.2112 or by email stephanief@olosc.org

We are happy to help you. Next week we will have a list of titles available through our LightHOUSE displays.
