Pastoral Thoughts

Happy Easter!

Today the church celebrates the resurrection of our Lord and cries out Alleluia, Alleluia as thanks for our Lord's great sacrifice and redeeming grace.

Like most Christians around the world we are experiencing an unknown version of Easter. With the pandemic we are relegated to having services taped or streamed live so all people can participate in the Mass in a safe manner in their homes.

I know many long for the Eucharist and sacraments during this time while everything is suspended for health reasons, but we can reflect and ask our Lord to let us share in His spiritual communion. Taking time out of our lives to contemplate the importance of the Last Supper, the Passion of the Cross and the jubilation of the Resurrection can be very fulfilling to the soul.

This Easter is really a day to give thanks for so much in our lives, even though we may be quarantined. We all have a greater appreciation of what is important and what cannot be bought with money. The old saying that "if you have your health you have everything" is so correct.

We must not let our Hearts be troubled, because our Lord looks out for even the smallest sparrow in His created world, and today we must sing like the sparrow for joy for all that we have. Join in with your brothers and sisters as you watch the Triduum on our website and sing the songs of praise together. Just because we are separated, it does not mean we are not united, we remain family.

The staff and musicians have continued to work tirelessly so that you can join in on the celebrations in our beautiful church via the web.

On a final note this Easter, I just want to thank you for all your generous tithing and prayers during this difficult time. We will continue to pray for you and your families each day, and I am optimistic that we will come through this trial a stronger parish with a greater prayer life.
