Pastoral Thoughts Happy Father's Day!

Father's Day is a time for family, celebrations, remembering and telling of stories about the men in our lives that helped us become who we are.

Because Fathers are called in a special way to reflect God's unconditional love and forgiveness while teaching us valuable lessons. Very much like our Heavenly Father who cares for us, corrects us and is there to pick us up when we stumble.

God, the Father displayed this ultimate love when He gave up His own Son to be crucified so that we all might be saved through Him. He displayed the tough reality of this special vocation of Fatherhood. Fathers are to sacrifice for their families, and if they stumble and are not perfect all the time it is OK; because their desire and efforts are noticed, and their sacrifices are appreciated.

For they have many roles to fill for their families: Spiritual leaders, guardians, loving husbands and fathers, while being examples of truth and goodness, courage and accountability, and most importantly being a living witness of the Gospels for all to see.

So, let us be grateful in a special way today: for whether they are our fathers by birth, adoption, step-fathers or even mothers, who have had to take on the extra role, they all have love for us. They care and provide for us and are our best examples of the virtues and characteristics we will need to learn and carry with us throughout our lifetimes.

So, if you are still searching for that perfect gift for your Father, just know that there is no sweeter sound than to hear the words "I love you dad", a small thing but one that bonds us together as family, and it doesn't cost a penny – so remind them often.

Blessings

LIGHTHOUSE CATHOLIC MEDIA DISPLAYS JESUS AND THE JEWISH ROOTS OF MARY

By Dr. Brant Pitre

"This book is vintage Brant Pitre: clear, persuasive, readable, and above all, inspiring. It causes us not only to know more about the Mother of God, but also to love her more."—Robert Barron, Auxiliary Bishop of Los Angeles and author of To Light a Fire on the Earth

"Mystified by the way Catholics speak about Mary? Join the club! But if you – like me – have longed for a book that makes a good biblical case for Catholic teachings relating to Mary, then look no further! Brant Pitre has produced an absolutely riveting, page-turning read, surely the most thought-provoking and stimulating I have ever read on the subject." - Chris Tilling, Graduate Tutor and Senior Lecturer in New Testament Studies

"I did not think a single book could be written about Mary that would excite and unite Catholic and Protestant readers - scholars, clergy and laity alike. What Pitre does with the Bible and Marian typology is clear and compelling. A joy to read, this is the best biblical study of Mary I have ever read. A true masterpiece."—Scott Hahn, author of The Lamb's Supper and The Fourth Cup

"Combining detailed biblical study with his own personal reflections, Pitre explains how Mary the mother of Jesus came to be regarded as a new Eve, a new Rachel, the ark of the new covenant, heavenly queen, perpetual virgin, and mother of God. The volume is an accessible, indeed essential, guide to Roman Catholic teaching, and it should interest anyone seeking deeper understanding of Mary's role." Amy-Jill Levine, University Professor of New Testament and Jewish Studies, Vanderbilt Divinity School and College of Arts and Science
