What is the difference between the bird flu and the swine flu?

One requires tweetment and the other an oinkment.

Carried and Called to Follow

Jesus the Good Shepherd is one of Christianity’s most endearing images. Scenes of Jesus holding a small lamb bring comfort during times of trouble, reminding us of God’s tender care when we are weak or hurting. In those moments, we are grateful to be carried.

Yet this image also points to a deeper truth. The Shepherd’s role is not only to carry the lamb, but to lead the flock. When we are restored and strengthened, we are called to rise, to walk and to follow where He leads.

God meets us in our need with compassion, but He also calls us forwa with purpose. The same hands that lift us up also guide us on the path ahead.

There is a time to be carried, and there time to follow.
