QUALITY EDUCATIONAL PRACTICES FOR STUDENTS WITH HIGHER FUNCTIONING LEVELS OF AUTISM SPECTRUM DISORDER
A five-part webinar series hosted by the Pennsylvania Training and Technical Assistance Network (PaTTAN)

References and Resources for Session #3:
Social Skills Instruction
(March 27, 2013)

Instructor:
William L. Heward, Ed.D., BCBA-D
The Ohio State University

Topics

- Teaching Social Skills
- Numbered Heads Together
- Classwide Peer Tutoring
- Recruiting Attention/Assistance from Teachers and Peers

Items marked with an asterisk (*) are included with this presentation as downloadable documents.

Teaching Social Skills

Social skills curricula (e.g., ), reviews of instructional strategies (e.g., scripts, modeling, activity schedules) and research.

Taylor, B. A. (in press). Improving the social behavior of children with autism. In M. J. Weiss & A. Bondy (Eds.),

Teaching Social Skills (continued)

Numbered Heads Together

Classwide Peer Tutoring

Recruiting Attention/Assistance from Teachers and Peers

