

Lesson Title: Know Your Vote

Handout #1: "Real Voters of the USA" Graphic Organizer

Directions: After watching the film "Real Voters of the USA," work in your groups to complete questions 1-3. After the full class discussion, discuss question 4 in your group. Be prepared to share your answers with the entire class.

1. What was your major takeaway from this film? What was a particular point that caught your attention and why?
2. On the chart below, summarize the argument between Lara and Jessica on lowering the deficit and balancing the budget, or spending money on social programs and infrastructure.

Lara – Liberal Ideology: belief in government action to achieve equal opportunity and equality for all. Government's role is to address social problems, promote the general welfare, and protect civil liberties and human rights.	Jessica – Fiscal Conservative Ideology: belief in personal responsibility and limited government. Government's role is to be fiscally prudent with the people's money (taxes) and secure peoples' freedom to pursue their goals.
