

Lesson Title: To Vote or Not to Vote

Handout #2: "So You Think You Can Vote?" 3-2-1 Strategy Chart

List three things you didn't know about voting in the United States before watching the film.

--

Create two questions you have after watching the film.

--

Describe one memorable moment you remember from the "So You Think You Can Vote?" film and why it made an impression on you.

--

Discussion Activity: After completing the graphic organizer, organize into four groups with a quarter of the class in each of four corners of the room. Share things you've learned from the film and one of your questions with at least two people in the other groups. Then, meet as a full class to share the moments you thought most memorable.
