Celeste lives a life of death and service to her father. Along with her sisters, she takes the souls of men who succumb to her sweet song. She never allows herself to be with them before bringing about their deaths.

When one of her fated victims, William, takes her breath away she has a choice. She can give into the desire and be with him chancing that she will not be able to kill him or take his life swiftly before acting on her feelings.

Find out William's fate in this hot and dangerous story.
