The Apostles and early Church leaders had a crystal clear understanding of the gospel and the doctrine of 'Justification'; which is by grace through faith in the Lord Jesus Christ alone.

Satan through his agents has attempted to corrupt the gospel of Christ right from the time of the early Church till this day.

History has recorded that both, the Roman Empire and the Roman Catholic Church (RCC) persecuted and even put Christians to death for the gospel that they believed. The RCC went to great extents to prevent the translation of the Word of God into a language that the masses could understand and therefore kept them in the dark and indoctrinated.

The early Church Reformers like John Wycliffe, Johannes Huss, John Knox, Martin Luther, William Tyndale and others were all former RCC priests. They were learned men. They understood what the Bible taught and saw that the practices of the RCC with respect to their indulgent lifestyles and false doctrines did not match the Holy Scriptures and that the fundamental doctrine of 'Justification'; was corrupted by the RCC. It was John Wycliffe who translated the Bible for the first time to English so that the common man who did not know Latin, Hebrew or Greek could read it and understand it for themselves. When the RCC saw that their authority was being challenged and that they could no longer keep the masses in the dark and under their control, they persecuted the early Church Reformers.

John Wycliffe's bones were exhumed from his grave, burnt and scattered and an anathema pronounced on him by order of the Roman Catholic Council of Constance. Johannes Huss was burned at the stake. William Tyndale was strangled and burned.

Now, 500 years after the Reformation, the RCC and some who claim to represent the Reformed Church are in discussion over the fundamental doctrine of 'Justification'. It appears that what the Roman Empire and the RCC could not achieve through persecuting and murdering Christians and keeping the written Word of God away from the common man, they are attempting to achieve through subtlety and their insidious instruments who masquerade as preachers in the Reformed Church.

It is not only the RCC that is responsible for the corruption of the gospel of Christ;

there are other spurious gospels such as the 'prosperity gospel'; that is really the worship of mammon; an anti-Christ spirit that is being spread amongst unsuspecting Christians.

Let not all the suffering and innocent blood that was shed so that we can have the true gospel in a language that we can understand and decide for ourselves, be for nothing. When we know what the true gospel is, we will have no difficulty spotting a fake irrespective of whether it is from the RCC or from the prosperity preachers of our day, or somewhere else. The Apostle Paul explained the true gospel very eloquently in his epistle to the Galatians.

The Lord Jesus Christ is about to return. Just before His return, there will be great deception and spiritual darkness. But, we still have the light of His Word, and His promise to restore all things in these end-times.

The book 'Hold On To The Truth' is written in simple English that is easy to understand. It is a short study of Galatians that explains what the true gospel is.
