Marleena keeps it professional, yet she is known to be the sassiest therapist in downtown Chicago. Convinced that she'll always be alone, Marleena decides to take a leap of faith and pursue her secret love interest. She never imagined that it would be with someone that held the key to her career. To her dismay, Marleena will find out that setting boundaries can become intolerable and difficult in the workplace.

Jonis, attractive, confident and well established in his career; wants to start a family. However, Jonis is forced to conduct an investigation surrounding the company's finances. He will not stop looking for answers until the corporate creep is caught. Will he lose focus and allow the most important aspect of his life to fall apart?
