Jeff Bezos is an American online retail pioneer and tycoon, with a net worth of over $100 billion, according to the Jan. 2018 Bloomberg billionaire tracker. As founder and CEO of Amazon.com Inc. (AMZN), he changed the way Americans buy books, which quickly expanded to the way they purchase all manner of consumer goods.

A graduate of Princeton University, Bezos founded Amazon in 1994, at the age of 30, when worldwide internet use was still in its infancy, and online shoppers were even rarer. Bezos had become convinced of the internet's immense mercantile potential during his stints at Bankers Trust and D. E. Shaw & Co.
