Kristie is a high school girl who witnesses a brutal murder by an unknown being. Kristie is so traumatized by the events that she is committed to a state hospital for a while and the doctor there tries many harsh methods to get her to remember the actions and the murderer, but to no avail. Meanwhile Kristie's parents buy a small resort motel on Grand Lake. Shortly after her release Sir Walter Cromwell a retired inspector and writer of police procedure books comes to stay at the resort. He has come to persuade Janet Anderson a longtime friend to join him in investigating paranormal phenomenon, as he has been commissioned to write a book on the subject. Then murder comes to Grand Lake and we find that there is another side to Kristie, a side thought long since dead, and yet it haunts her very being. What is real, who is real, Sir Walter must decipher, the mystery in order to save Kristie.
