Not wanting to have a repeat of last year's Christmas, Carter's dad decides to shake things up by creating a list of family activities to do in the twelve days leading up to Christmas. Christmas suddenly takes a whole new direction, and meaning, for this family of four. Their four-legged canine pet is right in the midst of it all as he narrates this Christmas story from start to finish. Our 12 Days of Christmas is a definite read for this year's Christmas season and many to come. You will definitely be inspired to create your own list.
