This is the heartwarming story of Anton's love and concern for his little sister. Miliana climbs out of bed and slips out of the house late at night. Anton is instructed to stay home in case somebody finds her and brings her home. The others go looking for her. Anton is worried about his little sister's disappearance and can't stop himself from going off into the night to look for her. He finds her and becomes a hero. However, the next day Dad is not happy with Anton for leaving the house against his wishes and much to Anton's disappointment Dad delivers a consequence.
