Bryan Adams is a one man rock&#x2019;n&#x2019;roll success story: he went from washing dishes for $2.50 per hour to becoming a multi-millionaire by making music that people liked. Adams&#x2019; &#x2018;Reckless&#x2019; album sold over 10 million units globally whilst his ballad &#x2018;Everything I Do (I Do It For You)&#x2019; cleared an impressive 7 million copies. He remains one of the world&#x2019;s most popular rockers and a Canadian national hero.

In this detailed but accessible biography Mark Duffett explores Adams&#x2019; meteoric recording career, &#x2018;ordinary guy&#x2019; persona, and unfolding political commitment. The supporting activities of his manager and record company are included to complete the picture. As a well-informed story of maximum rock&#x2019;n&#x2019;roll it constitutes essential reading material for true fans.

This book is a lightly revised edition of the title by the same name, first released in 1994.
