Relationships don't last. In the world of constant texting and emotionless hookups, Iris, a senior at Glens Falls high school, is tired of the short-term relationships around her. Her best friends are quickly working their way through the student body and after her last relationship ended in disaster, Iris is sure no teen relationship can last for long. She begins to doubt her theory when she meets Dean, a new student at school. Will Iris risk her friendship with Dean for a shot at love or will her fears hold them back in order to protect a friendship?
