

GOD'S POWER FOR SALVATION

ROMANS

Is God at the center of your question-asking?

No matter what you think,

no matter what you feel,

no matter what your past,

God is and will always be faithful.

Romans 8

"What then shall we say to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? He who did not spare his own Son but gave him up for us all, how will he not also with him freely give us all things? Who shall bring a charge against God's elect?"

It is God who justifies. Who is going to condemn us? Christ Jesus has died, and more than that, he was raised.

And he sits at the right hand of God interceding for us. So, who shall separate us from the love of Christ?

Shall tribulation, or distress or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or danger, or sword?

No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us.

For I am convinced that neither death nor life, nor angels nor rulers, nor things present nor things to come, nor powers, nor height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord."
