Profiles in Diversity Journal* 2021 2nd Quarter Issue Now Online

Cleveland, OH (June 23, 2021) – Profiles in Diversity Journal® has just published its 2021 2nd quarter issue, now available online at www.diversityjournal.com and www.womenworthwatching.com

This issue profiles the 28 recipients of the publication's 3rd Annual Women Worth Watching® in STEM Awards, as well as the 24 recipients of its first Annual Asian Leaders Worth Watching Awards.

Additionally, this issue features the third in a 3-part series of articles by Donald Fan, Senior Director, Global Office of Culture, Diversity, Equity & Inclusion for Walmart, in which he discusses why making equity central in the workplace is key and what employers can do to achieve it. (Parts 1 & 2 of this series may be found in the previous two issues of the magazine, on the Profiles in Diversity Journal website.) Also in this issue is an article by Vicki Thrasher, Senior Vice President of Human Resources for Oracle Corporation, in which she addresses the importance of embracing neurodiversity at work.

"For more than two decades, Profiles in Diversity Journal has been a leader in acknowledging and awarding individuals and organizations who generate positive results in the areas of diversity, inclusion, and, equity," says Publisher James Rector. "We will continue to expand our reach and increase our efforts to recognize and showcase the achievements of those who share our commitment, our passion and our values."
