

"Our residents deserve the very highest standards; a chance to relax and to enjoy themselves with like-minded friends. We seek to provide the perfect environment for an elegant and dignified lifestyle. As each day continues to bring new challenges and joys, I am very proud of what we achieve."

Charles D'Cruz, Manager

"We are committed to providing our residents with a safe, respectful and caring environment in which their wants and needs are met, and in which we are able to promote our ethos of dignity and wellbeing that enhances life and enjoyment of the surroundings and the environment."

We provide secure, comfortable and elegant homes where we encourage independence, preserve dignity, nurture the spirit and involve friends and family. We do not believe that growing older is a reason to give up any of life's pleasures. On the contrary, we see this as a time of freedom to pursue your interests and passions, or just to take a break from the responsibilities of life.
