Performance Notes

“Come walk with me, a winter walk.” This original text by Herb Frombach takes us on a winter walk with beautiful imagery. It’s nighttime, quiet, bright moonlight, slowly falling snow, shadows. A scene your eyes alone cannot behold. It takes your breath away.

This imagery translates musically into lush harmonies created by the use of dissonance throughout the piece, making those vocal parts very important. Also, the tempo should be steady with an absence of rubato as if you were on a leisurely walk. The peaks at measures 21 and 53 at the modulations should open up expressively, but note the absence of a ritardando approaching those sections. Enjoy!
