

for the 2006-2007 John Strange Elementary School Choir

I See the Moon

for Two Part Treble Voices with Piano Accompaniment

Words & Music by Douglas Beam

mp

Andante espressivo

mf

Pedal with harmony

I see the 5

moon, it's shin-ing from far a-way, Beck-on-ing with ev-'ry beam. And

8va loco

8va

9

though all the stars a - bove cast down their light, still the moon is all that I

loco

12 mf

see. And it's call - ing out, "Come run a-way! And we'll

15 mf

sail with the clouds for our sea, And we'll trav - el on through the 18

black of the night, 'til we float back home on a dream!"

mf

22 mp più mosso - with hushed excitement

The moon ap - proch - es my

più mosso

25

win - dow pane, stretch - ing it - self to the ground. The 8va (m.g.)

28

moon sings soft - ly and laughs and smiles, and yet nev - er makes a 8va

31

sound! I see the moon!

34 rit. f

I see the moon! And it's

rit. f

I see the moon! I see the

37 Tempo I

call - ing out, "Come run a - way! And we'll sail with the clouds for our moon, it's shin - ing from far a - way, Beck - on - ing with ev - 'ry

Tempo I f Tempo I f

40

sea, And we'll trav - el on through the black of the night, 'til we beam. And though all the stars a - bove cast down their light, still the float back home on a dream!" "til we float back home on a moon is all that I see. still the moon is all that I rit.

43

46

Tempo I

dream!"

see.

Tempo I

rit. al fine