A Note From The Composer

"Chorale Prelude: I Want Jesus to Walk with Me" was commissioned by my good friend Charlie Melton and the New Boston Junior High Band for their performance as the Texas Music Educators Association Honor Band in San Antonio, Texas. The piece is based on the spiritual "I Want Jesus to Walk with Me" at Mr. Melton's request. He also requested the vocal solo and the end of the piece.

Whenever I am setting a hymn, I try to let the lyrics guide me through the piece. The opening section represents a prayer, a request, "I want Jesus...". The rising chords represent the ascent of prayer from earth to heaven. The dissonance of the harmony represents the struggle of the soul in prayer. At measure 24 the music represents walking...steady ostinato, static harmonies, etc. I could not resist the old time gospel swing section representing the African-American roots of the music. The descending woodwinds at the ending represent blessings coming from above...the answer to prayer.

Careful attention to balance will be needed with the opening chords. Show students where the dissonances occur and assure them that it is not a mistake! Don't be afraid! I have heard directors complain that bands (esp. young ones) can't swing. I disagree. Do not be afraid to rote teach jazz style. The phrasing and style of jazz rhythms cannot be communicated with music notation. Sing the parts, listen to examples of blues, jazz, gospel, etc. Get a Mahalia Jackson recording and play it for your band. If Mahalia can't teach you the proper phrasing, no one can. The big no-no in this section is DO NOT RUSH!!!! The vocal section should be voice and clarinet choir; however, I have cued several parts and written the melody as an optional flute solo if you have no singer.

This page of a musical score, numbered 24 and marked piu mosso, features a variety of orchestral instruments. The woodwinds, including Flute, Oboe, Bassoon, and Clarinets in Bb, B, A, T, and B, as well as Saxophones in A, T, and B, are active throughout. The brass section, consisting of Bb Trumpets, Horns in F, Trombones (Tbn), Baritone, and Tuba, provides a strong harmonic foundation. Percussion parts for Timpani, Mallets, Cymbals, and Triangles are also present. A vocal line is included at the bottom of the page. The score is marked with dynamic levels such as f (forte) and p (piano), and includes performance instructions like piu mosso. A large, diagonal watermark reading "Copyright Material By Twin Towers Music Publications" is overlaid on the score.
