Program Notes

Santa's Toy March is a fun and exciting addition to any holiday program for the developing concert band. Several well-known holiday favorites set the stage for the parade of toys to follow. You will hear the "Toy March" from The Nutcracker, Jolly Old St. Nicholas and Up on the Housetop. This arrangement also features the percussion section quite a bit, so let them shine!

Starting with the "Toy March" from The Nutcracker seemed appropriate for Santa's Toy March. Introduce great orchestral literature to the students from the very beginning. The music is scored in a simple, yet effective way to convey the spirit of the holidays. Jolly Old St. Nicholas himself appears next in a march setting. Each section of the ensemble gets a turn at the melody. From there we move to foot stomps which recreate the hooves of the reindeer on Santa's sleigh. Up on the Housetop enters over the foot stomps. The arrangement returns to the "Toy March" from The Nutcracker at m. 55. This time, the treatment is reminiscent of Mussorgsky's "Great Gate of Kiev" from Pictures at an Exhibition. The march style returns to lead the toys into Santa's bag for their journey to all the children who are on the nice list.
