Program Notes

Every year I struggle with finding new and creative ways to arrange music for holiday concerts. It is always fun to try and find a new way to musically link two tunes together in an interesting way. And this arrangement is the result. It combines the famous Gustav Holst chorale In the Bleak Midwinter with the popular Christmas carol Angels We Have Heard on High.

The arrangement begins with the breathy sound of flutes in the low register playing the Holst tune without accompaniment to set the mood. This, then expanded as the full tune, is revealed and then leads to a brass section statement of the Christmas carol using harmonies that are different from the normal harmonic progressions of the carol, but more closely related to the harmonies found in the Holst piece. After some interplay between the tunes and sections of the band, the "Gloria" section of the carol is presented with full band scoring. The Holst tune returns now orchestrated with rich lush low brass sounds followed by a big build, some additional interplay of the tunes and then finally a big climactic moment based on the last phrase of the Holst. The breathy flutes return to bookend the arrangement and end in the same subtle manner in which the piece began.

It has been my pleasure to have the opportunity to write this piece. I hope you and your students enjoy it and find it useful for your program.

About the Arranger

Music by Larry Clark (b. 1963) is some of the most popular and most performed by concert bands and string orchestras of all ability levels. Larry is equally adept at writing music for beginners as he is for high school and college ensembles. His music is tuneful, contains a fresh harmonic perspective, is well scored and stretches the musicianship of the performers. He prides himself on producing music that is not only intriguing to performers and audiences alike but that contains a playability that comes from a keen understanding of the technical difficulties inherent in all instruments. His pieces have been performed internationally and appear on numerous contest/festival performance required music lists. He is an ASCAP award-winning composer, has over 200 publications in print and is in demand to write commissions for bands and orchestras across the country.

Besides his abilities as a composer Larry serves as Vice President, Editor-in-Chief for Carl Fischer Music. In this capacity he oversees all publications in all genres for this esteemed music publisher. However, his main focus is on selecting, editing and producing concert band and string orchestra music for the company. He travels the world representing Carl Fischer Music doing clinic/workshops and guest conducting appearances. His background as a former middle school and university band director at Syracuse University, combined with his composing and editing, have placed Larry at the forefront of music for school ensembles. He holds a Bachelors Degree in Music Education from Florida State University and Masters Degrees in Conducting and Composition from James Madison University in Virginia. The Carl Fischer Performance Series for Band has five performance levels to provide you with a highly focused repertoire for your band. Each level has been carefully designed and graded, within specific guidelines, so that each piece in a level will work with your band when it achieves that level. Each level is also color coded for ease in finding the series that will be appropriate for your band, as it develops.

Within each grade level, you will find selections in a variety of styles and genres designed to meet all of your performance and teaching needs. The Carl Fischer composers and arrangers are some of the most respected writers in the business. Their music is dynamic, fresh and eminently worthy of your attention.

Young Performance Series

- Addition of a separate Trombone and Baritone part
- Addition of simple sixteenth-note rhythms
- Clarinet 2 still below break
- Low brass writing carefully considered
- Keys carefully considered
- Logical voice leading
- Still limited independence of parts
- Active percussion writing with more instrument options
