PROGRAM NOTES

“Allegretto” is an excerpt taken from the second movement of Beethoven’s Symphony No. 7 in A major. This symphony was completed in 1812 and premiered in Vienna in 1813. The symphony’s celebratory, dance-like nature made it an immediate success to a Viennese public weary from the years of Napoleonic occupation and ready to celebrate the end of the war.

The Symphony No. 7 combines both classical and romantic elements. Beethoven himself called it one of his best works.

The expressive, lyrical second movement, “Allegretto,” was especially popular and had to be encored at the premiere performance. It is often performed separately from the entire symphony. Most recently, this movement was used to underscore the climactic final scene from the film “The King’s Speech”.
