ABOUT THE MUSIC

Gesu Bambino was composed in 1917 by Italian-born American organist and composer Pietro Yon. Pietro, along with his brother Constantino, opened a teaching studio at Carnegie Hall in New York City in 1914. By 1921, Yon gained American citizenship. In composing Gesu Bambino, Yon cleverly incorporated parts of the tune Adeste Fidelis (O Come All Ye Faithful) as a secondary melody (beginning at measure 29). This carol has become a musical staple of the holiday season.

As with most of my arrangements, I strive to feature every section of the orchestra when musically appropriate. The music remains true to the original composition with the following exceptions: the original key was transposed down a whole step from E major to D major, the time signature was split in half from 12/8 to 6/8, the form was shortened to be less repetitive and an original introduction was added.

—Erik Morales
