Program Notes

Ascensions was created to showcase the power of ascending melodic lines and harmonic progressions. Prepare yourself for a shot of musical adrenaline and pure excitement as we perform this thrilling piece. Fasten your musical seatbelts for Ascensions!

Rehearsal Suggestions

Rigid execution of the accents in the opening measures will highlight the ascending melodic line in this section, one of the hallmarks of the piece. At m. 13, the dynamic swells greatly contribute to the alluring quality which is present here. Carefully balance the keyboard percussion with the woodwinds in this section. It may be necessary to reduce the number of alto saxophones here, depending upon your instrumentation. The melody presented at m. 17 must be featured. M. 25 starts a long crescendo, climaxing at m. 33. The "ascensions" are in the low brass and low woodwinds here. Perhaps rehearse this separately, so the students can hear this part as it rises and grows to m. 33. M. 46 starts a long crescendo to m. 62. Here, the "ascensions" are in the melody line, and in the "melodic answer" starting at m. 48. A big, bold and aggressive style should be evident at m. 62. The section beginning at m. 85 starts another long crescendo to m. 93. Here the "ascensions" are in the upper brass and upper woodwind parts, and can be rehearsed separately.

I hope that you and your ensemble enjoy rehearsing and performing Ascensions as much as I enjoyed composing it. Please contact me at my composer page at www.barnhouse.com with any questions. Thanks!
