Rehearsal Suggestions

The opening fanfare should be performed in a bold and proud manner. Closely observe the Molto Rit. leading to the fermata in m. 4. Beginning at m. 5, there are suspensions throughout, first in the second trumpet and second clarinet, and later in the horn and alto sax. Make sure these come through, with the second note of the slur full value and not "clipped." At m. 21, strive for proper balance during the dynamic hairpins. Encourage a big crescendo leading into m. 30. At m. 30, the horns, alto saxophones and the upper woodwinds have the melody, and must be prominent.

I hope that you and your ensemble enjoy this arrangement of The Star Spangled Banner, and that it will add a special touch to your concert programming. Thank you, and best wishes!
