Program Note

For Those We Love is dedicated to my family, a large and varied group, spread over four generations and two continents. Living in a diverse and complex world as we do, my definition of family is broad and all-encompassing – pets included! Anyone with whom you share the ups and downs of life – anyone who lifts you up and helps you to persevere – that's family!

Rehearsal Suggestions

This music should be played gently, with expression. It should flow, moving along; not fast, but not too slow. Make sure that the melodies can be clearly heard throughout, with the accompanying backgrounds supporting at all times. Make each phrase of the melody rise and fall dynamically. Where there is movement in supporting lines, bring those out a bit as well. To create the best balance, work with your ensemble so that they play the long notes softer than the melody and lines of interest. Make a big deal of the climaxes in the piece (measures 43-44, 59-60, and 71-74). Build each climax gradually with intensity. Carefully observing the dynamic changes, and paying attention to balance and blend, will greatly enhance your performance.

I hope you enjoy For Those We Love.

About the Composer

Larry Neeck is an internationally recognized composer and arranger, with more than one-hundred eighty works for concert band, jazz ensemble, and orchestra published by C.L. Barnhouse Company and Arco String Publications. He is frequently commissioned to write for schools, bands, and festivals, and often works as a guest conductor and clinician. His CDs, "Swing Machine," recorded by the Studio A Big Band, and "Midnight Escape," recorded by the Washington Winds are available from Walking Frog Records. In addition to his work as a composer, Mr. Neeck had a successful career as a middle school band director, retiring after thirty-two years from the Webster (NY) Central School District. He directed concert bands, jazz ensembles, taught wind and percussion classes, and co-founded the Willink Middle School Student/Parent Band. The years he spent as a school band director have informed his composing style, resulting in works that engage students and audiences alike.
