Rising Band Series (Grade levels 1½ - 2)

The Rising Band Series is carefully designed and written to serve the performance needs of the developing band program. In addition to providing quality performance literature for your concert program, each title in the series provides an appropriate musical setting for the conductor/teacher to reinforce musical concepts and skills that have been addressed in the first two years of instruction. Written at two grade levels (1 1/2 and 2), the Rising Band Series provides a variety of musical works that employ the note and rhythm sequence used in most band method books. The Rising Band Series is a sound fundamental approach leading to a command of the concert band.

Program Note

Divergence can be defined as drawing apart of lines from a common center. Divergence by Robert W. Smith is based on that concept with melodic lines that draw apart from a common musical center. Melodic lines pull apart and interact within choirs. Woodwinds diverge from brass providing contrasting and interacting harmonic effects. Divergent lines continue to develop throughout the piece leading to a powerful and exciting conclusion.

Notes to Conductor

Unified articulations and dynamic balance are the keys to success in this piece. Please confirm the shape and dynamic intensity of the accent, tenuto and staccato articulation markings. In addition, please direct the band's attention to the dynamic shaping throughout. The percussion shaping is particularly crucial to the musical success of the performance.

I would also suggest identifying the interacting lines that are the inspiration and title concept for the piece. For example, the trumpets interact with the trombones/baritone beginning in measure 9. As in a verbal conversation, the shape, tone quality and dynamic presence are very important to musical communication. I would suggest asking the band to identify other divergent lines as they interact throughout.

I hope you find Divergence to be a valued addition to your repertoire and a rewarding musical experience. Best wishes for a wonderful performance!
