PROGRAM NOTE

Chorale For Trumpets is a beautiful, reflective work written for small trumpet ensemble by Christopher Kyle Green. The composer writes, "Beginning with whole-tone scale, the chorale creates an organ like sound. I found that writing a whole tone scale that perfectly places each note a whole step apart fills up the area with a pure sound."

NOTE TO THE TRUMPETS

While lyrical in nature, the ensemble should strictly be in time and over-exaggerate the dynamics provided.

I wish you a very successful performance.

ABOUT THE COMPOSER

is now beginning to work on his master's degree.

Kyle Green has been an active musician since before entering high school. Through his time of learning to play instruments, he was independently practicing music composition. As Kyle grew older and transitioned to high school, his works were beginning to be locally performed by the Berry College Wind Ensemble, Rome, Ga; The Northwest Georgia Winds, Rome, GA; and The Shorter University Wind Ensemble, Rome, GA. Once Kyle graduated high school, he attended Kennesaw State University, Kennesaw, GA, to study music theory. Once attending college, Kyle's works became more performed. Many ensembles at Kennesaw State University performed new works written Kyle as well as more known ensembles. In 2015, the Dallas Wind Symphony, Dallas, TX, chose a fanfare that he entered into the Dallas Winds Call For Fanfares. Since then, Kyle has been commissioned to write many pieces, one being premiered at the GMEA In-Service Conference, Athens, GA. Kyle has also won the Kennesaw State University Composition Contest in April, 2016. Kyle graduated with a BA in Music Theory in May, 2018 and
