PROGRAM NOTE

Rockin' Locomotive was written as an easy, fun and motivating tune for the beginning band. The call-and-response style with short musical motives is easy for students to play with the rock-style drumbeat. Join us as we travel down the musical tracks with our Rockin' Locomotive!

NOTES TO CONDUCTOR

Rockin' Locomotive is written as an "opportunity for success" throughout the band. The piece provides an introduction/reinforcement to eighth note patterns and includes enough repetition to put it together in very little time.

Please note the option in the trumpet part. Trumpet players will find success in the regular part with the range of C to G. However, they have the option to challenge themselves by playing the advanced part which includes notes up to written C.

Care should be taken to match note lengths throughout the band. In addition, please emphasize the importance of counting the multi-measure rests so that entrances by all sections are correct.

I hope you and the band enjoy Rockin' Locomotive!
