PROGRAM NOTE

Boston's English High School was America's first public high school. The Boston School Cadets were formed at English High School during the American Civil War in response to the need for better trained soldiers.

The Cadets were trained in the latest military tactics and theory. Upon graduation, cadets were given the opportunity to enter the Army as second lieutenants. Eventually this training was adopted in all Boston Public Schools. To serve as the forerunner of our present day JROTC programs is an important part of English High School's legacy and our Nation's history.

NOTES TO CONDUCTOR

The opening statement should be played in march style with the staccato notes separated but having a full sound.

At measure 5, continue the march style, giving emphasis and length to the half notes. The next strain beginning at measure 23 will continue similarly.

The trio at measure 41 introduces a style and dynamic change. Please make sure the melodic line is legato and connected with the brass motives providing contrast in style.

Measure 73 returns to staccato notes with the half notes receiving emphasis and full value. The three notes leading into measure 85 should be played full value with slight separation and continue similarly to the end.
