PROGRAM NOTE

When you are a child, what could be more fun than a day at the fair? Between big wheels, roller coasters, and other merry-go-rounds, this creative composition depicts the joy and happiness of a young child during this wonderful day. Welcome aboard. Fasten your seat belts!

NOTES TO CONDUCTOR

The staccato markings beginning at measure 5 should be short. However, they should not be too short based on the quarter note lengths. The main purpose is to play as light as possible.

The counter-melody appearing at measure 13 brings a nice contrast with the main theme. Please note the legato phrases and respect the slurs.

From measure 21 to 36, the theme is written in a "question and answer" style with percussion playing little solos using multiple instruments. If only one percussion player is playing the Percussion 2 part, please direct them to place all instruments close to them for proper timing and transitions.

From measure 37 to 44, a new mood is introduced depicting a break in our funfair day (ex. lunch break). Dynamic contrast and shaping are very important.

The crescendo in measure 59 must be respected. It leads to a "coda" that seems to come one measure too soon and surprises the audience.

I wish you and your band a wonderful performance.
