PROGRAM NOTE

A fun and light-hearted piece, Comets was written to honor a wonderful teacher who impacted countless students. The composer writes, "Comets was written for both my Goddaughter, Abby, and my high school band director, Harold Blankenship. Abby was quite young when this was composed. The melody is intended to evoke the image of a small child playing, blissfully lost in their own world. The title is taken from the mascot of the final school Harold Blankenship taught music and reflects on all of the "comets" he has sent into the world in his 40+ years of teaching."

NOTES TO THE CONDUCTOR

When performing this piece, direct the students to pay close attention to the dynamic markings. Measure 9 should be very quiet as if musically "tip-toeing". In contrast, measure 33 should be the students' chance to "rock out" as enthusiastically as possible.

I hope that you and your students enjoy performing Comets knowing that a little girl named Abby is excited that "my song" is being performed.
