THE WORK OF CHRISTMAS

TTBB

LYRICS BY HOWARD THURMAN

MUSIC BY DAN FORREST

From the Composer

I first encountered this Howard Thurman text online in January 2014, after the Christmas season had ended. Its beautiful lines call us not to merely take in the sights and sounds of the Christmas celebration, but to respond by doing our part in working toward the “peace on earth” that we so often sing about. I never set a text to music unless it “sings to me”—that is, it suggests some musical setting to me in which its external and internal beauty might be heightened by being joined to music. For me, some texts are best left alone as poetry; others eventually “sing to me”, but only after the song is coaxed out of them. Once in a while, though, a text seems to sing right off the page, and this poem did just that. I strove for a simple but elegant a cappella setting that would breathe with the flow of the words and let its beauty shine through. The piece may be effectively programmed in a variety of settings, either in the middle of a service or concert, or as a closing benediction. It is also effective either during the Christmas season or after it. — Dan Forrest
