Program notes

“I’ve always said that crazy things happen everywhere, and you just need to have your eyes open to them.” And so begins another online post by Patti Eubanks Adams about her latest (mis)adventures riding the Dallas Area Rapid Transit (the DART). These unexpected and often humorous experiences were chronicled online by Patti which, over time, found their way to the composer. Inspired by Patti’s pithy, sarcastic, and self-effacing observations, the composer decided to set a collection of them to music. The result is Patti Rides the DART, a set of seven musical miniatures for soprano, flute, and piano. Moving through numerous genres and styles, this set offers a unique vehicle for dramatic expression that will challenge the range of the singer. The pianist and flutist also provide more than accompanimental support by playing important roles in the piece’s many comedic moments.

Performance notes

The sixth song features a head joint glissando, a technique achieved by the flutist playing into the head joint while slowly moving his or her right-hand index finger in and out of the opening at the end of the head joint. The aural effect is like the sound of a slide whistle. To avoid disassembling their instrument during the performance, it is recommended that the flutist use a separate head joint for this song.

I. Day 2 Hair

Finally got to work 45 minutes later than usual, and my “Day 2 Hair” looks more like “Day 26 of a Hostage Situation Hair.” And I’m not making light of any hostage situation.

II. Dear Kind Man

Dear kind man next to me on the TRE, no, you may not lay your head on my shoulder.

III. Calisthenics

I’m not sure I can even describe what just happened, but it involved a pirate headscarf, *multiple* piercings, and calisthenics on a moving train.

IV. Faithfully

That moment when you realize that everyone is enjoying your rendition of Journey’s “Faithfully.” I really took it home on the bridge and all the way through the chorus.

V. Death Dealer

I’m currently sharing my seat with a guy wearing a jacket that says “Death Dealer” on it. Prayers appreciated.

VI. Composting

Dear sir, your 45-minute discussion on composting was riveting. #SaidNoOneEver
#HeldHostage

VII. Tote Bag

I’ve always said that crazy things happen everywhere, and you just need to have your eyes open to them. But today is one even I wouldn’t expect. I just gave a lady on the DART my big TXB tote bag. So she could throw up in it. Then we rode together for four more stops. Hold me Jesus. #PattiRidesTheDART
