About the Composer

Chris Ferguson (b.1973) draws on his experiences as an educator and performer to write music that is both fun and accessible to young musicians. His compositions and arrangements are enjoyed by ensembles throughout the country. Mr. Ferguson is the band director at the Braxton Craven School in Trinity, NC and has taught instrumental music education for over 20 years. He has been named both "Teacher of the Year" and "Distinguished Educator of the Year" by his colleagues in addition to achieving his National Board Certification. He often appears as a guest clinician and has conducted bands at the UNC Greensboro Summer Music Camp for many years. Mr. Ferguson is a graduate of Appalachian State University (B.M.) and the University of North Carolina School of the Arts (M.M.) where he studied with Jim Miller of the Los Angeles Philharmonic.

A versatile player, Mr. Ferguson has performed with a variety of organizations including touring Broadway productions, symphony orchestras, big bands and the rodeo. He has held positions with both the Long Bay Symphony and the Disneyland All - American College Band. Currently he serves as principal trombonist with the Salisbury Symphony and is a member of the Giannini Brass.

Mr. Ferguson is a member of the American Society of Composers, Authors, and Publishers (ASCAP) and the National Association for Music Education (NAfME). Mr. Ferguson resides in Salisbury, North Carolina with his wife Sonya and sons Thomas and James.

Royal Feast

Royal Feast seeks to capture the festive spirit of a regal dinner party. Lively melodies are passed around like conversation at a candle lit dinner table. A change of melody in m. 13 symbolizes a new topic in the conversation and should be played with a relaxed half-time feel. The texture is reduced in m. 29, giving each section a chance to be featured. The Westminster Chimes melody in m. 45 signals the end of festivities. As the party winds down, each section has an opportunity to solo before the last candle is blown out.

I hope you and your students enjoy Royal Feast!
