About the Work

I had the great honor of working with the Slovenian Philharmonic Choir in November 2015. I was commissioned to write a new piece for them for a concert in Ljubljana (the capital of Slovenia) dedicated to my choral music. I knew that I wanted to write a highly energetic and challenging work for this professional choir.

The inspiration for Jubilate Deo came to me at the JFK airport in New York, just before boarding the plane that would take me to Salt Lake City for the ACDA National Conference. The airbus was crowded – full of people and bags – and not the ideal ambience for inspiration. Luckily, the piece had already formed itself in my mind and in my heart. You never know when inspiration will hit!

The world premiere was performed under the baton of Matjaž Šček, an excellent conductor and a good friend. (You can find the video of the Slovenian Philharmonic Choir's performance on YouTube.) Jubilate Deo is not necessarily an easy piece, but it is not as complex as it may seem at first glance or first listen. If you don't have four soloists the SATB quartet may be performed by an octet or a small chamber choir (twelve or sixteen singers).

The text, Jubilate Deo universa terra, is from the Offertory for the Second Sunday after Epiphany and also the Fourth Sunday after Easter. But the motet is suitable for general use when a festive work is needed.

-Ivo Antognini

Jubilate Deo

Jubilate Deo universa terra.
Psalmum dicite nomini eius.
Venite, et audite, et narrabo vobis,
omnes qui timetis Deum
quanta fecit Dominus animæ meæ, alleluia.

-Psalm 65

Duration: Approx. 4:30

Shout to God

*Shout to God, all those on earth.
Sing a psalm to his name.
Come and listen, and I shal tell all those that fear the Lord
what great things he hath done for my soul,
alleluia.*

About the Composer

Swiss composer Ivo Antognini (b. 1963) received a degree in piano in 1985 at Lucerne, where he studied with Nora Doallo. He then studied at the Swiss Jazz School in Bern with pianist Joe Haider.

Early in his career Antognini composed music for television and film as well as jazz works. In 2006 he met with Coro Calicantus, a world-class children's choir, and its director, Mario Fontana, and since that time he has devoted his efforts largely to the composition of choral works. He has been described as "an important new voice" by The American Organist Magazine.

His choral works have won many awards in national and international choral composition events and are performed by top choirs throughout the world. In July 2012, he was invited by the American Choral Directors Association to present his choral music at the 7th World Choir Games in Cincinnati, USA, where he served as one of the adjudicators. Antognini writes music for choirs of all levels and has a distinctive personal style. His choral works have been performed in more than forty-five countries. A concert dedicated completely to his choral music took place in March 2016 at the Lincoln Center, NY. His first major, extended work, "A Prayer for Mother Earth", for mixed choir, children's choir, orchestra, soprano soloist and piano, was premiered at the Carnegie Hall in New York in May 2016.

Recent recordings with Antognini's music include Invisible Stars (SIGNUM RECORDS), with UCD Choral Scholars, and Sacred Songs of Life & Love (PENTATONE) with South Dakota Chorale. His choral pieces are published by Alliance Music, Walton Music, Hal Leonard, G. Schirmer, Colla Voce, Boosey & Hawkes, Porfiri & Horváth, de Haske, Carus-Verlag, Ferrimontana, and others.

Ivo Antognini teaches ear training and piano at the Conservatorio della Svizzera Italiana in Lugano (Switzerland). He lives in the village of Aranno with his wife Patrizia and his two children, Eleonora, and Milo. For more information please visit www.ivoantognini.com.
