from Revelation

SATB Double Choir

Music by Patrick Hawes

Text from
The Book of Revelation

A DIVISION OF GIA PUBLICATIONS, INC.

About the Work

This is the seventh piece of the Revelation collection and is in many ways the climax of the whole work. As with Worthy is the Lamb, these words are set by Handel in Messiah, though my approach here is quite different. The tempo is similar, but the use of double choir provides exciting antiphonal effects and the word “Hallelujah” is projected to the listener with a whole variety of phrasing and colour. The section between bars 25 and 31 is the most technically challenging, but is important in that it generates an almost ecstatic mood of praise. Done well, this section is the perfect preparation for the piano statement of “Hallelujah” in the next bar which, in turn, gives rise to the final triumphant exclamations of the word.

-Patrick Hawes

Hallelujah

Hallelujah!
For our Lord God Almighty reigns.
Let us rejoice and exult
and give him the glory!
For the marriage of the Lamb has come,
and his bride has made herself ready.

-Revelation 19:6-7

About the Composer

Patrick Hawes is an English composer who has made his mark as a torchbearer of the English musical tradition. He is best known for writing the Highgrove Suite for HRH Prince Charles, the Prince of Wales; for being Composer-in-Residence at the UK's largest classical music station—Classic FM, and for the number one album Angel. He has written for Voces8, the Choir of New College Oxford, Julian Lloyd Webber, and Hayley Westenra on albums that have all reached number one on the classical charts. Patrick is currently writing for The King's Singers and working his biggest project to date—a choral symphony entitled The Great War Symphony—to be premiered in its entirety in the Royal Albert Hall in 2018.

His new album Revelation, which features the Revelation and Beatitudes choral collections published by Walton Music and recorded by The Elora Singers (Canada), will be released in February 2017. For more information, visit patrickhawes.com.
