About the Composer

Andrew Boysen Jr. is presently a professor in the music department at the University of New Hampshire, where he conducts the wind symphony and teaches conducting and composition. Under his leadership, the UNH wind symphony has released six recordings and been invited to perform at regional conventions of the College Band Directors National Association and National Association for Music Education. Previously, Boysen taught at Indiana State University and Cary-Grove (IL) High School, and was the music director and conductor of the Deerfield Community Concert Band. He remains active as a guest conductor and clinician, appearing with high school, university and festival ensembles across the United States, Great Britain, and Australia.

Boysen earned his Doctor of Musical Arts degree in wind conducting at the Eastman School of Music, where he served as conductor of the Eastman Wind Orchestra and assistant conductor of the Eastman Wind Ensemble. He received his Master of Music degree in wind conducting from Northwestern University in 1993 and his Bachelor of Music degree in music education and music composition from the University of Iowa in 1991.

He maintains an active schedule as a composer, receiving commissions from festival, university, and high school concert bands across the United States. Boysen won the International Horn Society Composition Contest in 2000, the University of Iowa Honors Composition Prize in 1991 and has twice won the Claude T. Smith Memorial Band Composition Contest, in 1991 and 1994. Boysen has several published works with the Neil A. Kjos Music Company, Wingert-Jones Music, Alfred Music, Masters Music, and C. Alan Publications, including pieces for band, orchestra, clarinet and piano, and brass choir. Recordings of his music appear on the Sony, R-Kal, Mark, St. Olaf and Elf labels.

About the Composition

Stamp was commissioned by, and is dedicated to, my good friend Jack Stamp. The Indiana University of Pennsylvania Wind Ensemble, with Jack conducting, premiered the piece on April 25, 2015.

When Jack asked me, along with several of his composer friends, to write a short piece for his retirement concert, I was extremely honored. Jack has been a good friend and a mentor to me since I started in the music business.

Obviously, the title of the piece is Jack's last name, but it is also a reference to the indelible "stamp" that Jack has left on me and all of us in the band world. This "stamp" is through his wonderful contributions as one of our finest composers and conductors (and I tried to reflect the energy of his music in this piece), but just as importantly as an advocate for new composers and compositions for band. It seemed especially fitting that for his final concert, Jack would, instead of performing all of his "old favorites," lead a concert comprised entirely of premieres. So as I began work, I decided to simply try to write a good piece that Jack would be proud to have in his name.

The basis for the piece is Jack's initials, J.E.S. I took those three letters and, assigning them in order to the musical alphabet, came up with C, E, E. The second E came from the original letter S, though, suggesting to me that this note should be E flat, thus creating the basic motive of C, E, E flat. By taking this trichord and inverting it and transposing it down a step, the next three notes became D flat, A, B flat. By creating one more trichord, starting with the B flat and adding G and F sharp, I was able to create a tone row that was comprised of the octatonic set. This set does not change throughout the piece, although the key centers do change. The piece is constructed in five short sections, moving from C to E flat to G flat to A, and back to C. The second and fourth sections both contain a longer melodic line, which is the retrograde of the opening "row" for the piece. The harmonic material is generally divided into two four-note chords that split the row into two equal tetrachords.

The resultant piece turned out to be pretty aggressive and angry sounding. In fact, after the first couple of rehearsals, Jack texted me and asked why I hated him. This, of course, brought a smile to my face ... and hopefully his as well.

The movements of A Jack Stamp Suite may be performed separately. In the concert program, please list the title as:

"Stamp" from A Jack Stamp Suite, composed by Andrew Boysen Jr.

When performing the Suite in its entirety, the program listing should read:

A Jack Stamp Suite

- I. "Ankrovag" Fanfare, composed by Bruce Yurko
- II. Romanza, composed by Mark Camphouse
- III. GF Redux: "It's Yours", composed by Timothy Mahr

- V. Stamp, composed by Andrew Boysen Jr.

Kjos Music's Guide to © Copyright

Composers rely on the income that their compositions generate, and it is the job of the copyright holder to protect the work from infringement. Copyright laws can be pretty tricky to navigate, so here are a few helpful tips to guide you through the process.

Adjudicator Copies

During contest and festival season, the majority of the inquiries we receive concern making photocopies of scores to meet specific requirements for the judges at a festival.

If you're performing a concert selection out of one of our method books (Tradition of Excellence, String Basics: Steps to Success, First Place for Jazz, among others), permission may already be given to make the necessary photocopies for judges at these festivals. Please refer to the notices printed in the teacher score on the specific piece.

If a student is performing a solo from one of the method books listed above, permission is already given. In addition, a photocopy may be given to the accompanist.

Extra scores for our band and string repertoire (Beginning BandWorks, BandWorks, Conservatory Editions, StringTracks, and Steps to Successful Literature, among others) are available for purchase from your favorite music dealer. If you're performing a work from a series that's not listed above, please contact us for permission.

Making an Audio or Video Recording

A license is required any time you make an audio or video recording of a copyrighted work. Audio recordings are compulsory, meaning we can't deny your request; you just need to apply for the Mechanical License and pay the royalty. The royalty rate is set by the Library of Congress. For current rates, please visit www.copyright.gov.

The license to make a video of a performance, known as a Synchronization License, is not compulsory. Permission must be obtained from the copyright holder before distributing any copies, regardless if they are being sold or given away for free.

Arranging for Marching Band or Another Ensemble

We're pleased to grant licenses to make a marching band (or other) arrangement of one of our concert works. However, permission is required before work can begin, and there are a few works whose composers have indicated that they do not want their compositions to be altered. Please contact us to make sure the piece you're interested in is available for licensing.

If you're planning to play the original piece without any alterations or additions, then a license isn't needed. However, for example, if you're rewriting the brass parts for marching instruments (mellophones, bugles), or adding marching percussion, or making cuts, adding repeats, or creating a medley with another composition, a license is required.

What If I Want To ... ?

If you'd like to use a composition in any other way, please contact us and we would be glad to advise you.

Contest and festival season is a busy time for our Copyright Office. Please contact us at least three weeks before your concert date so that we may help you in time. Please visit www.kjos.com and click on the Licensing tab to find out more information or to submit a license request.

We're so pleased that you've chosen to perform one of our pieces! We appreciate your support and we want to make the licensing process as easy as possible for you.
