TO THE DIRECTOR

Energy abounds in this straight eighth rock chart influenced on the jazz side by Lee Morgan's "Sidewinder" and borrowing from rock & roll influences including Chuck Berry and early Beatles.

There are a number of unison ensemble melodic and rhythmic passages. Take care that these are not overplayed, especially in respect to dynamics. When the bari saxophone is presented with a divisi part, always have the bari player play in the lower octave as much as possible.

When rhythm section parts contain detailed writing, be sure to observe the written material, as often it is doubled in the horns. Take advantage of opportunities where the dynamic tapers back to mezzo forte.

The open solo section at measure 57 is over simple C blues changes. Starting at measure 69, the band and audience will have a ball clapping on 2 and 4.

SoloMate recordings are available at kendormusic.com for new Kendor and Doug Beach releases. This innovative resource lets students practice their solos by downloading professionally-recorded rhythm section accompaniment tracks. A full recording of this chart can be downloaded at www.kendormusic.com.
