TO THE DIRECTOR

The original inspiration for this chart came from listening to the early straight-ahead compositions of Chick Corea, although it doesn't necessarily resemble any one piece in particular. The tempo is not fast, it is important to pay close attention to the indicated 192 bpm. The piece begins with a rhythmic figure in the saxophones and rhythm, with additional trombone and trumpet lines stacked on top of it. This leads into the main theme, played by a small group within the band. As the tune progresses, notice the rising, then falling dynamics which are important to the shape of the theme.

The floating time feel at the end of the form every time it comes around is especially important. The solo section is written for alto, but transposed chord change sheets have been provided for all instruments. Following the solo section, an open drum solo at measure 153 is accompanied by the rest of the rhythm section with the brass providing an intensity boost the final two times (m. 161). The saxophone section is then featured, which builds to the shout chorus at measure 185. This is the climax of the chart where the band can let loose until the return of the original theme in measure 201, this time played by the trombone section. From measure 217 onward, the music should gain dynamic momentum and intensity, building toward the final two chords of the piece.

SoloMate recordings are available at kendormusic.com for new Kendor and Doug Beach releases. This innovative resource lets students practice their solos by downloading professionally-recorded rhythm section accompaniment tracks. A full recording of this chart can be downloaded at www.kendormusic.com.
