TO THE DIRECTOR

This swinging arrangement features a fluid saxophone section sound throughout, contrasted with areas of brass punctuation and summed up with a signature tag at the end of each chorus. The piano has a written or ad lib solo.

Although this arrangement begins with a marcato pedal bass, most of the chart should be played with a light rhythmic lilt in mind. Adhering to all long/short eighth note groupings, and ensuring that phrase endings are clipped as indicated, will help in achieving a fluid, light sound, especially when the saxophone section is playing the main melody.

The tag at the end of each chorus needs to also be light in sound, with the triplet riff leading into an emphatic and clipped phrase ending.

Although the pedal point beginning at measure 67 may indicate that a heavier feel is coming, it is important to have your ensemble maintain its light, mobile feel throughout this section. However, as the chart gears up at the key change at measure 111, the ensemble may play a little more emphatically, as the higher key and tessituras should negate any rhythmic or stylistic "weight" from creeping in. This conception should play out naturally, as it leads to the heaviest part of the chart, which is the last five measures.

SoloMate recordings are available at kendormusic.com for new Kendor and Doug Beach releases. This innovative resource lets students practice their solos by downloading professionally-recorded rhythm section accompaniment tracks. A full recording of this chart can be downloaded at www.kendormusic.com.
