The Ash Grove

By Randall D. Standridge

Program Notes

I first fell in love with The Ash Grove years ago when I played the first movement of Little English Suite by Leroy Jackson. The moment I heard the tune—simple, elegant, and deeply lyrical—I was hooked. It's one of those melodies that feels like it's always been with you, even if you're hearing it for the first time.

Now, I know what some of you might be thinking: This piece has been arranged dozens of times already... so why do another one? Fair question.

For me, it came down to wanting to bring something personal to this beautiful melody—something that reflects my own voice as a composer and educator. I wanted to preserve the emotional warmth of the original tune while giving each section of the ensemble a moment to carry it. I also wanted to create a lyrical setting that included meaningful, expressive parts for the percussion section—not just background texture but an essential part of the story. Finally, I wanted the piece to explore the full emotional range of the melody: from sweetness and nostalgia to sorrow and, ultimately, a quiet sense of triumph. All of this is set in a flowing, fast 3/4 meter to keep the music moving and alive.

The piece opens with a clarinet solo, setting the tone with warmth and grace. From there, the melody is passed from voice to voice, supported by lush harmonies and carefully crafted textures. The percussion writing helps shape the emotional contour of the piece, bringing depth and energy to the ensemble's sound.

The Ash Grove was commissioned by the Mary D. Bradford High School Band of Kenosha, Wisconsin, and their director, Karl C. Mueller, in celebration of the band's 100th anniversary. I was honored to be part of such a meaningful milestone. Whether this is your hundredth time hearing this melody or the very first, I hope it brings as much joy to your ensemble and audience as it brought to me.

Peace, Love, and Music – Randy Standy

Rehearsal suggestions

- The tempo of this work is critical to its character. Having said that, the temptation with this work will be to play it slower than written. Please, don't do this. It robs the music of its flow and life. Trust me on this. I wrote it.
- Dynamics should be noticeable and taken to extremes.
- Percussion should be on the higher end of dynamic balance. Do not hide them.
- While the solo is written for clarinet, it is also cued in Alto Saxophone. Please use your strongest soloist in this regard.

About the Composer

Randall Standridge (b.1976) received his Bachelor of Music Education from Arkansas State University. In 2001, he began his tenure as Director of Bands at Harrisburg High School in Harrisburg, Arkansas. He left this post in 2013 to pursue a career as a full-time composer and marching arts designer.

Mr. Standridge's music is performed internationally. He has had numerous works selected for J.W. Pepper's editor's choice. His compositions Snake Charmer, Gently Blows the Summer Wind, and Angelic Celebrations have been included in the "Teaching Music Through Performance in Band" series. He has had numerous works performed at the prestigious Midwest Clinic in Chicago, Illinois. The Arkansas State University Wind Ensemble premiered his work Art(isms) at the 2010 CBDNA conference in Las Cruces, New Mexico, and his work Stonewall: 1969 was premiered at the National LGBA conference in 2019.
