Note from the Editor:

The title of this grade 3 piece is a play on the fact that many of the themes in the piece have a 7/4 feel, though they are written in alternating 3/4 and 4/4 bars. Shifting occurs in Violin 1, Cello and Bass.

Dance of the Seven Seas

By Emily Golan, Grade 3

Program Notes:

Set sail in Dance of the Seven Seas and prepare for a spirited adventure! Students will embark on a journey of changing meters, double stops, and a variety of hooked bows and articulations. The jovial theme is contrasted with a peaceful lyrical section before returning for a buoyant ending.

Note to the Conductor:

I decided one day to challenge myself to write something with an asymmetric meter, and came up with the ostinato featured in the low strings at the beginning of this piece. Soon, a bouncy melody formed, and Dance of the Seven Seas came to life. The title includes a nod to the seven beat groove, which I wrote out in 3/4 and 4/4 for more clarity. As I created this piece, I imagined a lively crew at sea on an adventure full of excitement, laughter, and joy. The lyrical section in the middle represents how many journeys include a period of calm and introspection. This reprieve from the hustle and bustle is helpful for acknowledging where we have been and then using those experiences to inform the remaining path forward. Once the main melody returns, it's all hands on deck to finish the piece with a flourish. I hope you enjoy playing this piece as much as I enjoyed writing it.
