About the Composition

Battlefront is an aggressive, cinematic composition for the developing concert band. The music is bold and rhythmic throughout but also contains some contrasting lyrical sections that allow for some valuable teaching moments. Another element is the prominent use of the lower voices on melodic sections. This is important in teaching all of the instruments how to play melody in addition to accompaniment parts.

The opening is powerful and rhythmic right out of the gate. Bring out the accents on the hits on beat 3. The low voices present the melody at m. 9 with a light 8th note accompaniment. Additional layers and counterpoint are added at m. 17 to further develop the sound. The opening rhythmic gesture returns as a transitional moment to the upper voices taking on the melody at m. 29.

A contrasting lyrical section follows from m. 44-55. Focus on a lush and warm sound throughout this section. The fast section returns at m. 56 with renewed vigor. The addition of a pedal note at m. 68 provides much anticipation for the final arrival at m. 77 that brings the music to a dramatic finish.
