Performance Notes

Celebration of Peace is a fantasy on Oseh Shalom ("He Who Makes Peace") a traditional Hebrew song. It was inspired by and is dedicated to Mr. David Abrams—a band director, multi-instrumentalist, breathing specialist, and close friend and colleague of the composer. Mr. Abrams is one of the founding members of Lake Patrol a consortium of brass musicians from across the United States.

The beginning of the work is set in a songlike fashion to highlight the melody first heard in the clarinet section. This is followed by a mixed meter dance (m. 27) during which a chamber instrumentation performs the dance-like melody over a steady percussion groove. The following aggressive up-tempo flourish (m. 44) plays with odd meters alternating six and five in jubilant syncopation. The second dance treatment (m. 60) is set in seven and juxtaposes different phrases of the tune. This leads to a pesante restatement of the tune (m. 80) before a rousing finale (m. 88).

The conductor is encouraged to follow closely the marked tempos and pay close attention to the style and phrase markings throughout. In moments of syncopation, especially during the mixed meter sections, performers should attempt to emphasize the off-beats to achieve maximum nuance.

About the Composer

Michael J. Miller is a composer and arranger living in Nashville, TN. His works for concert band, orchestra, and chamber ensembles are regularly performed nationally and abroad, including recent performances at the Midwest International Band and Orchestra Clinic in Chicago.

Michael designs competitive pageantry shows for indoor and outdoor ensembles across the United States. His music for college band has been performed at the Superbowl as well as at numerous B.C.S. bowl games. In addition to his design engagements, Michael serves as an adjudicator for competitive pageantry organizations at the state and national level including Music For All's Bands of America Championships.

Before dedicating himself to composition full time, Michael was a public-school band director. Under his leadership, the Joe E. Newsome High School band (Lithia, FL) earned the Florida Bandmasters Association's Otto Kraushaar award, was named B.O.A. Regional Grand Champions, qualified for W.G.I. World Championships Finals, and performed in the Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade. Michael was awarded the School Board of Hernando County's Hernando H.E.R.O.E.S. Award, and the Superintendent's Excellence Award. Additionally, he received the National Band Association's Certificate of Merit for outstanding contributions to marching bands.

Michael holds a Master of Music degree in Instrumental Conducting from the University of Florida and a Bachelor of Music Education degree from Syracuse University. He is a member of the Music Educators National Conference, the National Band Association, the World Association for Symphonic Bands and Ensembles, and is a brother of Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia.
